

INTRODUCTION:

The LSD is responsible to provide legal support to the Departments of State Bank of Pakistan and its subsidiaries. Its domain covers litigation, advisory and regulatory / legislative functions to be addressed both on a case to case basis as well as through on-going identification of opportunities to provide clarity of direction and reduce litigation through preventive measures.

At present the LSD is divided into the following divisions:-

- a. Corporate Services Division
- b. Banking Legal Division
- c. Litigation Division
- d. Projects, Compliance and Support Services Division

The role of this office is provision of quality service in accordance with its functions, through close interaction with stake holders for easy accessibility to sound and critical advice outlining the shortest lawful path to goals of the client departments.