

PUBLIC NOTICE

Dated: 21st February, 2005

FREIGHT SUBSIDY ON EXPORTS OF LEATHER GARMENTS

- Government has allowed 25% freight subsidy on exports of leather garments for the period 1st January to 31st December, 2005. The subsidy would be provided both against C & F and FOB exports. The claims of leather garment exporters would be scrutinized by the Pakistan Leather Garments Manufacturers and Exporters Association (PLGMEA), before these are filed through the Commercial Banks concerned.
- Freight Subsidy will be disbursed to the exporters as per the existing freight subsidy rules notified in EPB public notice No. 2 (4)/2004-PPI dated 25th October, 2004, except that, for leather garments, only paras 4 to 8 of the said public notice will be applicable. The condition in para 4 (b) about the exporter's rubber stamp "Under Freight Subsidy Claim" will be applicable to export made from the 5th March, 2005.
- For the purpose of scrutiny by PLGMEA, exporters will send to PLGMEA only a Summary of the Claim as per Annexure-III of the EPB public notice aforementioned, which is available on the EPB website www.epb.gov.pk. PLGMEA will endorse the Summary of the Claim and return it to the exporters for filing their full claim, with all the required documents, through their banks concerned.
