

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The FSR team is greatly indebted to Dr. Shamshad Akhtar, Governor, State Bank of Pakistan for her invaluable feedback, encouragement and support in the preparation of the report, and Mr. Riaz Riazuddin, Economic Advisor, SBP, for his guidance and helpful comments in enhancing the quality of the contents.

The team would also like to thank Ms. Lubna Farooq Malik, Director Banking Surveillance, Mr. Muhammad Saleem Rehmani, Director Payment Systems, Mr. Pervez Said, Director Islamic Banking, and their respective teams for helpful comments on the drafts. Data support from the Banking Surveillance, Islamic Banking, Statistics and Data Warehouse, Monetary Policy, Economic Analysis, Domestic Markets and Monetary Management, Financial Markets Strategy and Conduct, Off-Site Supervision and Enforcement, Exchange Policy and Payment Systems Departments is also thankfully acknowledged.

We are also grateful to Dr. Mumtaz Hashmi, Advisor, Insurance and Mr. Salman Sheikh, Commissioner, SECP and their teams, for providing access to data, in addition to constructive feedback, on the chapters on the Insurance and NBFCs sectors.

A special thanks is extended to: Mr. Carl-Johan Lindgren (ex-Deputy Director, Monetary and Exchange Affairs Department, IMF), ADB Consultant, for working closely with the FSR team since the inception of the outline earlier this year and for providing valuable comments and suggestions for improving the quality of the draft chapters, and to Mr. Jeffrey Carmichael (ex-Chairman Australian Prudential Regulation Authority-APRA), CEO Promontory Financial Group LLP, Australasia for his gracious contribution to the report during his recent visit to the State Bank of Pakistan.

The team bears the responsibility of all errors and omissions. The analysis and commentary in the report are entirely those of the team and do not necessarily represent the views of the SBP management.