

Business Confidence Survey - May 2026

(This survey was conducted during May 04-15, 2026, with a total of 493 respondents. The number presented are diffusion Indices (DI*) except for Figures 1, & 8)

Businesses inflation expectations moderated in current wave

Fig 1: Inflation Expectations
(percent, 5% trimmed mean)

Fig 2: Proportion of Businesses Expecting Higher Prices
■ Apr-26 ■ May-26

Business confidence remained subdued

Fig 3: Business Confidence Index (BCI)

Fig 4: Current and Expected BCI
■ Apr-26 ■ May-26

Fig 5: Sector-wise BCI
■ Apr-26 ■ May-26

PMI recorded a broad-based contraction

Fig 6: Purchasing Managers Index (PMI)

Fig 7: Components of PMI
■ Apr-26 ■ May-26

Capacity utilization declined while employment sentiments remained steady

Fig 8: Capacity Utilization
(Manufacturing, %)

Fig 9: Employment Sentiments
■ Current ■ Expected

DI>50 indicates that positive/ increasing views are more than negative/ declining views. DI = 50 indicates that positive/ increasing views and negative/declining views are equal(shown by dash line). DI<50 indicates that positive/ increasing views are less than negative/ declining views. Both current and expected variables are assessed over the past or next six months except Figures 1, 2 which are based on 12- month period.

Note: For more details of the survey, visit SBP website