Labour Law Cases – Review of Recent Courts Judgments

Employee did not agitated his claim of not allowing dues, fix salaries 16-16 in an appropriate manner immediately after reinstatement rather only after years on retirement. Petition as well as claim was time-barred

Condonation of delay, a discretion of Judge, is neither automatically 16-16 granted nor denied rather the power is exercised doing justice to both parties sufficient cause has to be there to justify the delay in each case

NIRC questionably claims to have jurisdiction to adjudicate over 17-17 deduction and delay in wags of an employee of an trans-provisional establishment

For misconduct, Labor Court finds termination after 19 years of 18-18 continuous service, excessive and harsh, modified to compulsory retirement

Employee/Appalent was denied increment benefit received by other 18-18 from the judgment. Increment benefit is to be determined first before petition under section 62 of IRO, 2002 can be entertained

Lack of Basic qualification or failure to meet the eligibility criteria for 19-19 advertised post is a defect which could not be cured by attaining said higher qualification subsequently

Appointment criteria is essentially an administrative matter 19-19
