AUDIO/VISUAL

159. America and the New Global Economy (DVD) [36 lectures, 30 minutes/lecture] / Taylor Timothy. Washington D.C.: The Teaching Company, 2010.

Description: America and the New Global Economy focuses on the idea that market forces of supply and demand cause faraway events to have an economic effect everywhere else. It also focuses on a range of economic issues that have important social, political, and cultural ramifications for everyone. In addition to looking at international flows of goods and services and financial capital, exchange rates, poverty, hunger and agriculture, urbanization, and the role of women. This riveting 36-lecture course takes you beyond the economy of the United States and reveals the recent history of economies in Asian countries, including Japan, India, and China, as well as in other regions.

160. Art of Critical Decision Making (DVD) [24 lectures, 30 minutes/lecture] / Michael A. Roberto. Washington D.C.: The Teaching Company, 2010.

Description: Mastering the art of critical decision making is the key to improving your life at home, at work, or in your community. When you understand the necessary components of a smart decision, you can examine mistakes you might have made in the past and sidestep potential mistakes in the future. The Art of Critical Decision Making is a fascinating 24-lecture course that explores how individuals, groups, and organizations make effective decisions and offers you tips and techniques to enhance the effectiveness of your own decision making. The course offers you a toolbox of practical knowledge and skills that you can apply to various decisions—whether large or small—in your everyday life and work.

161. Economics, 3rd Ed (DVD) [36 lectures, 30 minutes/lecture] / Taylor Timothy. Washington D.C.: The Teaching Company, 2010.

Description: Economics, 3rd Edition, will help you think about and discuss these and other economic issues that affect you and the nation every day—interest rates, unemployment, personal investing, budget deficits, globalization, and many more—with a greater level of knowledge and sophistication. This enlarged and reorganized Edition includes updated statistics and discussions of more recent events. It also features expanded coverage in areas of great public interest, such as anti-trust issues, corporate responsibility, and international financial crashes. These lectures require no special or advanced knowledge of mathematics. Instead, you will learn economics through intuitive explanations and in plain English.

162. Games People Play: Game Theory in Life, Business, and Beyond (DVD) [24 lectures, 30 minutes/lecture] / Stevens Scott P. Washington D.C.: The Teaching Company, 2010.

Description: Game theory plays a crucial role in our lives and provides startling insights into all endeavors in which humans cooperate or compete, including biology, computer science, politics, agriculture, and, most importantly, economics. Games People Play: Game Theory in Life, Business, and Beyond consists of 24 insightful lectures, which presents you with the fundamentals of game theory in a manner that is both engaging and easy to understand. It features hundreds of graphical and textual elements and a wealth of images and portraits to make the fundamentals of game theory entirely accessible.

163. Modern Economic Issues (DVD) [36 lectures, 30 minutes/lecture] / Whaples Robert. Washington D.C.: The Teaching Company, 2010.

Description: How do the major economic issues that dominate today's news—questions about gross domestic product or budget deficits or trade imbalances—impact the average citizen? Why are health insurance and college tuition increasingly expensive? What can be done about soaring energy prices? Professor Robert Whaples explains not only the urgent issues we all need to understand, but also the raw data economists use to describe their shape and impact. Make the connection between the economics you may have studied in school and the economics we experience in everyday life.

164. Thinking about Capitalism (DVD) [36 lectures, 30 minutes/lecture] / Muller Jerry Z. Washington D.C.: The Teaching Company, 2010.

Description: In an era of increasing globalization, capitalism plays a dramatic role in the world economy and your everyday life. Explore the wealth of perspectives on this pervasive economic force in Thinking about Capitalism, and gain fresh insights into capitalism's history, its proponents and opponents, and its startling impact on our world. In Thinking about Capitalism, you can finally grasp the history and the concepts of this vital economic system, as well as its importance on the global economic stage and in your own life.

165. Understanding Complexity (DVD) [12 lectures, 30 minutes/lecture] / Page Scott E. Washington D.C.: The Teaching Company, 2010.

Description: Discover and grasp the fundamentals and applications of the amazing field of complexity science with Understanding Complexity. Professor Scott E. Page—one of the field's most highly regarded teachers and researchers—shows you how complexity science helps us understand the nature and behavior of financial markets, corporations, native cultures, governments, and other systems that play important roles in our increasingly complex world. By the conclusion of the course, you'll have attained a new lens through which to better view and make sense of your world.
