Fresh banknotes to be made available before Eid-ul-Azha

The State Bank of Pakistan will issue fresh banknotes of all denominations to general public during the upcoming Eid-ul-Azha season. Issuance of fresh banknotes from SBP BSC counters and designated branches of commercial banks will commence with immediate effect and continue till the last working day before Eid-ul-Azha. Fresh notes of any denomination can be obtained from 16 field offices of the SBP BSC as well as designated branches of the commercial banks across the country against exchange value. There is no requirement for production of photo copy of CNIC / Smart NIC. City-wise details of the designated branches may be seen at the following link
