

January 31, 2014

Governor SBP Resignation

There have been media reports speculating various reasons as to why Governor Yaseen Anwar has resigned from the State Bank of Pakistan. We would like to clarify that the reason for Governor Anwar's departure is attributed to personal reasons that relate to his family and particularly the recent unfortunate head injury to his son studying abroad. It was an honor for Mr Anwar to serve Pakistan at this prestigious institution for almost seven years as Deputy Governor and Governor, State Bank of Pakistan.
