

Gujranwala

Gujranwala city is located on Grand Trunk Road and is the fifth largest city of Punjab population wise. Being an industrial city, Gujranwala has wide variety of industries including rice mills, flour mills, sanitary fittings, industrial machinery, fan manufacturing, metal utensils, ceramics to name a few., Noteworthy places in Gujranwala include Jinnah Stadium, Pace Shopping Centre, Nishan-e-Manzil, Jinnah Park, Model Town Park and Gulshan Park.

Keeping in view the need of the area, State Bank of Pakistan started operating a Foreign Exchange branch at Gujranwala in 1983. Gujranwala office started its full-fledged operations in May 1998 and was formally inaugurated by Mr. Muhammad Rafiq Tarar, the then President of Islamic Republic of Pakistan.