

Islamabad

Pakistan's capital, Islamabad holds the distinction of being one of the most beautiful capitals of the World. Some of the famous landmarks include Faisal Mosque, Pakistan Monument, Lok Virsa Museum, Lakeview Park, Daman-e-Koh and Pir Sohawa.

SBP BSC Islamabad Office enjoys a long history of central banking since its inauguration in 1970 by General Yahyah Khan, the then head of state. The Office has increased responsibility in terms of serving the Government departments as Islamabad houses headquarters of almost all of the Government, non-Government and semi-Government Organizations, besides being home to many foreign diplomatic missions. Nevertheless, as a Field Office of BSC, it is also committed towards providing customer oriented banking services to financial institutions and the general public, management of currency and channelizing efficient operations of the payment system.
