45 SIGNING OF CONTRACT AGREEMENT:

The successful bidder will prepare Contract in the Form of Contract provided in the Bidding Documents, incorporating all agreements between the parties. All cost in this regard including stamp duty shall be borne by the Contractor.

46 CODE OF CONDUCT:

- 46.1 It is the Employer's policy that Contractors to observe the highest standards of ethics during the procurement and execution of contracts. In pursuit of this policy, the Employer follows, inter alia, the instructions contained in PPR-2004 which defines:

"blacklisted" means a bidder that is declared by the Authority untrustworthy after establishing the fact that the bidder was found involved in any corrupt and fraudulent practice or practices; or if the bidder is declared incapable by the Authority due to its established performance failure during the execution of the contract; or if the bidder deviates from its prior commitment or declaration made regarding the bid or proposal submitted by the bidder.

"corrupt and fraudulent practices" in respect of procurement process, shall be either one or any combination of the practices including,-

- i. "coercive practices" which means any impairing or harming or threatening to impair or harm, directly or indirectly, any party or the property of the party to influence the actions of a party to achieve a wrongful gain or to cause a wrongful loss to another party;

- ii. “collusive practices” which means any arrangement between two or more parties to the procurement process designed to stifle open competition for any wrongful gain, and to establish prices at artificial, non-competitive levels;
- iii. “corrupt practices” which means the offering, giving, receiving or soliciting, directly or indirectly, of anything of value to influence the acts of another party for wrongful gain;
- iv. “fraudulent practices” which means any act or omission, including a misrepresentation, that knowingly or recklessly misleads, or attempts to mislead, a party to obtain a financial or other benefit or to avoid an obligation; and
- v. “obstructive practices” which means harming or threatening to harm, directly or indirectly, persons to influence their participation in a procurement process, or affect the execution of a contract;

46.2 Under Rule-19 of PPR-2004, “The Employer can inter alia blacklist bidders found to be indulging in corrupt or fraudulent practices. Such barring action will be duly publicized and communicated to the PPRA. Such matters would be referred to the Blacklisting Committee that is empowered to take action accordingly.

However such barring action shall be undertaken only after Contractor who is to be barred and blacklisted shall be accorded adequate opportunity of being heard. Decision of the Blacklisting Committee of SBP BSC will be final and conclusive.

46.3 The receipt for any money paid by the bidders will not be considered as any acknowledgement of payment to the Contractor unless such receipt is signed by a duly authorized officer of the Employer and Contractor shall be solely responsible for seeing that a proper receipt is provided.

46.4 Attention of bidders is drawn to Rule-32 of PPR-2004 whereby they are required to identify any discriminatory and difficult conditions, introduced by Employer which discriminates between bidders or that is considered to be met with difficulty. In ascertaining the discriminatory or difficult nature of any condition reference shall be made to the ordinary practices of that trade, manufacturing, construction business or service to which that particular procurement is related. However in certain conditions Employer may describe exceptions or preferences consistent with Rule-4 of PPR-2004.

46.5 Employer’s policy requires that selected Contractor shall provide professional, objective, and impartial advice and services and at all times hold the Employer’s interests paramount, strictly avoid conflicts with other assignments or their own corporate interests and act without any consideration for future work. Bidders have an obligation to disclose any situation of actual or potential conflict that impacts their capacity to serve the best interest of the Bank, or that may reasonably be perceived as having this effect. Failure to disclose said situations may lead to the disqualification of the bidder and termination of contract arising out of this procurement

46.6 Without limitation on the generality of the foregoing, Contractors and any of their affiliates, shall be considered to have a conflict of interest and shall not be recruited, under any of the circumstances set forth below:

- a) A Contractor that has been engaged by the Employer to provide goods, works or services other than consulting services for a project, and any of its affiliates, shall be disqualified from providing consulting services related to those goods, works or services. Conversely, Contractor hired to provide consulting services for the preparation or implementation of a project, and any of its affiliates, shall be disqualified from subsequently providing goods or works or services other than consulting services resulting from or directly related to the firm’s consulting services for such preparation or implementation.
- b) A Contractor (including its Personnel and Sub-Contractor(s) or any of its affiliates shall not be hired for any assignment that, by its nature, may be in conflict with another assignment of the Contractor to be executed for the same or for another client.

- c) A Contractor (including its Personnel and Sub-Contractor(s) that has a business or family relationship with a member of the Bank's staff who is directly or indirectly involved in any part of (i) the preparation of the specifications of the goods, (ii) the selection process for such assignment, or (iii) supervision of the Contract, may not be awarded a Contract, unless the conflict stemming from this relationship has been resolved in a manner acceptable to the appropriate authority of the Employer.
- d) Bidders shall not recruit or hire any agency or current employees of the Bank. Recruiting former employees of the Employer or other civil servants to work for the bidders is acceptable provided no conflict of interest exists. When the Contractor nominates any government employee as Personnel in their bid, such Personnel must have written certification from their government or employer confirming that they are on leave without pay from their official position and allowed to work full-time outside of their previous official position. Such certification shall be provided to the Employer by the Contractor as part of bid.

47 OVERRIDING EFFECT OF PPR-2004:

Whenever in conflict with these documents the stipulations of PPR-2004 (Public Procurement Rules-2004) shall prevail.

48 SILENCE OF SPECIFICATIONS:

The apparent silence of the specifications, plans, or other contract documents as to any detail or the apparent omission from them of a detailed description concerning any point, shall be regarded as meaning that only the best generally accepted practice is to be used. All interpretations of the specifications will be made by the Engineer on this basis.

49 ONE BID PER BIDDER:

Each bidder shall submit only one bid either by himself, or as a partner in a joint venture. A bidder who submits or participates in more than one bid will be disqualified.
