Annexure A

Sr.#	Queries	Responses
1.	Should the impact assessment consider both the qualitative & quantitative aspects?	The qualitative and quantitative aspects to be covered are well defined in the approved TORs, which may be followed in designing this impact assessment.
2.	Would the distribution of target beneficiaries include all provinces, including the territories of Azad Jammu and Kashmir (AJ&K) and Gilgit- Baltistan (GB)?	Yes,
3.	Would SBP provide the details of NFLP beneficiaries, especially those who attended the street theaters or related campaigns?	The number of street theaters conducted compared to the number of classroom trainings is very small. This factor may be accounted for when selecting a sample size. Concerning participant information on street theaters, data is available for participants as per program requirements.
4.	Is it mandatory for the Team Leader to possess impact assessment experience in the Financial Sector only?	The requirement of experience for the Team Leader is not industry-specific but function/skill-specific, i.e., Impact Assessment. The experience of impact assessment across all industries shall be considered. However, the Team leader should possess such expertise that could enable him/her to effectively meet the requirements as mentioned in ToRs.
5.	What is the budget for the subject assignment?	A sufficient budget is available. Given the Quality & Cost-based Selection Method, the highest-ranked firm, as a result of combined Technical and Financial Evaluation, shall be awarded the contract
